

SECTION XI.

CORBOULD OF DEBENHAM

THOMAS CORBOULD (see Section I), fourth child of John and Alice Corbould of Thorndon, was born circa 1533. He was mentioned in his father's will. In the Subsidy Return (Suffolk, 1568) occurs the name Thomas Corbold—the customary spelling of the name at that time at both Thorndon and Debenham. One of the Corboulds of Debenham was a beneficiary under the will of his godfather, a Corbould of Thorndon.

He married MARGARET . . ., and had issue:—

1. JOHN CORBOULD, living in 1558.
3. ALICE CORBOULD, bapt. at Debenham in 1562.
3. EDWARD CORBOLD or CORBOULD, of Debenham, Suffolk, born c. 1563. Married CHRISTIAN . . ., who died 3rd Oct. 1647. In 1639/40 "WIDOW CORBELL" of Debenham paid Ship Money. He died 29 Aug. 1630, leaving issue:—

1a. THOMAS CORBOLD or CORBOULD, of Bildeston, Holbrook, and Debenham, Suffolk, gentleman, described in the Ship Money Returns 1639/40 as Mr. CORBOLLE of Holbroke. Extracts from his book of genealogical notes are given here. He records that on "24 August 1624. I Thomas Corbould was married unto GRISS (ELLA) LYNNE one of the daughters of William Lynne of Mistley in the County of Essex on the xxiiii day of August in the year of our Lord God 1624: we were married att Bradfield in the County of Essex." He died 20 Aug. 1658 and was buried in the chancel of Stutton Church on 21 Aug. His will (1659) is at Somerset House. She was buried at Stutton 14 June 1664.

They had issue:—
